I hate to bore you guys with some of the same information, so I deleted everything and will type off the top of my head. But, anyways, I have to say I'm very thankful for the ability to serve on the mission field. I feel God is doing a lot just a whole .. LOT of foundation work.

I make new contacts every day. and now I have a part time job with a gentleman named Masaia San. I'm pretty much on call whenever he needs my help. The cool thing is, God has given me favor with him in a big way. They treat me so well. They really, really do. And, by doing all the random jobs he offers I get to meet new people pretty much on a daily basis. Through that I get more contacts constantly. I'm so ready though to send the praise report of the baptisms and the infillings of the Holy Ghost, but I guess that stage is on its way and I KNOW ITS ON ITS WAY.

But thank you for making it this far in my report if you have you found something of interest that kept you reading.

Thank you for the prayers and hard work regarding the mission in Japan and worldwide.

God bless you all at headquarters.
