

Namibia News

February 2017

January was a great month. As my visa was coming to an end, I had to leave Namibia for a few weeks. Bro. and Sis. Long, our missionaries to Botswana invited me to visit them in Francistown. While I was there I spoke for their new church three times and taught some Bible studies.

Bro. and Sis. Long were going to Zimbabwe for the reopening of the Bible school and invited me to join them. What an answer to prayer that was and a dream come true. It was wonderful to be able to visit the church Sis. Nix built many years ago. It brought back many memories. Thank the Lord the church is still there and is a powerful witness for truth.

I was invited to speak to the teachers and students at the opening service for the Bible school. The Lord put on my heart, "Lord, What Wilt Thou Have Me To Do?" We all need to ask the Lord this question in 2017. The Lord moved in a special way. Bro. Long spoke and called all to respond. There was a real time of prayer.

When I returned to Namibia, I received another three months visa. I have made application for a longer visa. Please pray it is approved.

This last month, I passed two mile stones in my life. I am another year older and Bro. Ikerd has been gone nine years. It is not easy alone yet the Lord has never failed me. I am looking forward to what the Lord has planned for His Church in 2017.

In His Service,

Sis. Sharon Ikerd (AIM #235192.0115)
