Report of March 2017

Hello to you headquarterians (: I must apologize again for the tardiness of this report.) I have no excuse. I didn't put it on the priority that I should. I have been very busy here in Miyako but still no excuse. I will do my best to get the report to you sooner than I have the past two reports.

But for Miyako, lately I feel the grind. I know we're making more and more headway, and for that it feels the devil is trying to put up blockers, ha ha, So were doing more prayer. We have people who just walk into our place of business to just talk. I had a man from the Philippines approach me while I was shopping, and we're going to have coffee soon. It's a daily thing meeting new people, and James and I are making headway in the community here. Everyone is starting to notice there's something different about us and its raising eyebrows...IN A GOOD WAY.

All in all, we are just remaining faithful to our duties in the preaching point and trying to keep the prayer going out for the island and our brothers in sisters elsewhere in Japan. God will have his way.

God bless and thanks for all the support. Have a wonderful Easter.
