

Next Steps so far has been an incredibly life changing experience!! One thing that I was praying for when I got here was that God would give me direction - a "promise to cling to" while am I working my way through school. I have definitely felt God speak to me on many occasions about my future. This group of people - the leaders and Next Steppers - are all amazing.