

Next Steps 2017: Scotland

Next Steps 2017 has been a game changer for me. It started with three weeks of intensive training at New Life Church in Glasgow, Scotland. We were privileged to be taught by many men and women with extensive missionary experience. Just getting to interact with them between sessions was impactful. A few highlights: Sister Kelley's session on praying for the world, Angie Clark's session on the Golden Circle, and the morning devotions where each Next Stepper shared her heart and testimony. Our fourth week in Glasgow we got to help Brother and Sister Kelley prepare for the Harvest Bible College graduation and Lifted concert. We scrubbed the building from top to bottom and prepared food (LOADS of food) for the meal after the graduation ceremony. We also passed out leaflets for the concert. It was wonderful to help the Kelleys and New Life Church after they hosted us so graciously.

Figuring out the public transportation was a bit of a challenge.
