

Special encounters/highlights

- On Pentecost Sunday, God filled four people with the Holy Ghost, 70 people were in attendance, which is a record number for Elujoe kogudus (name of church in Estonia)
- Met Bro. & Sis. Turner, Christopher, Michael, Bro. & Sis. Moses, and Anthony, two great missionary families in Estonia
- Met lots of foreigners—Japanese, Russian, German, Korean, Indonesian, Chinese, Nigerian, etc—and made connections with local Estonians

Pentecost Sunday Service, Prayer, and Bible Study Meetings

Greetings to you in the most wonderful name of Jesus. It is great being here. Tallinn is a beautiful city. The entire population in the country is 1.3 million, which is not very much. The number of tourists coming through Tallinn is astounding—every summer it numbers about 2 million. The first week I was here I met two Japanese tourists on the street and invited them to my apartment. They came over for an hour and took Bibles home.

The first church service on Pentecost Sunday was amazing. Bro. Mark Shutes and three AIMers came from Latvia and ministered. 70 people were in attendance, which is a record number for Elujoe kogudus (church name). Praise Jesus. Four people received the gift of the Holy Ghost. (including one from Sunday School)

Kid's Camp

We held kid's camp "Island Adventure" on Saturday, June 17 in Bro. and Sis. Moses' backyard. We played games, found treasures, made crafts, had a Bible lesson, and ate snacks. Sister Ingunn taught lesson on God's Word being the best treasure. Everyone poured in much time and effort building and preparing for this camp. The weather was perfect; we all had a great time.

At a supermarket near my apartment I met a lady, Christine. We began language exchange—Estonian and English. We have had a few Bible discussions. She believes in witches and nature. Pray for hunger for truth! I am thankful to Bro. and Sis. Turner for such a nice apartment in central location. I can take a tram/bus/train and go almost anywhere in Tallinn. At my apartment we began having Tuesday prayer and Thursday Bible study. A Chinese woman, Yingzi, I met on a tram began coming to Thursday Bible study. She doesn't understand English or Estonian, so we have a Bible study in Chinese earlier on. Ladies from Bible study group laid hands on Yingzi and prayed for her. She is praying for the Holy Ghost. I am believing God will fill her. Sister Esther from church introduced us to Valja, an elderly lady from Ukraine. She was sick with terrible leg pain. Bro. and Sis. Moses, Anthony, Sis. Esther, and I had worship and prayer with Valja at her home in Russian. Believing God for a miracle! We also went to Narva, northeastern city bordering Russia. We had good church service. It was in Russian. 18 people came.

Some interesting findings in Estonia...

- The daylight is the longest in the summer. It gets bright as early as 3,4 a.m. and stays light until 11p.m., midnight. I believe one day in June it is bright all 24 hours.
- Northeastern part of Estonia like the city of Narva is more Russian than Estonian. People speak Russian. The buildings look Russian. It is a poorer region.
- The three "Baltic States" are Estonia, Lithuania, and Latvia.
- Weather is unpredictable. You may wear a winter coat in the summer. (Thank you Sis. Ingunn Turner and Sis. Sheri Moses for winter coats, umbrella, and rain boots!)
- It takes only 2.5 hours on a ferry to go from Estonia to Finland, and it costs $40-60.
- You may find seagulls flying in Tallinn, because it is right next to the Baltic Sea.
- Rye bread (leib) and dairy/yogurt products are very good in Tallinn.
- Plastic/paper grocery bags are not free. .15 euros for a paper bag. They also have a recycling machine which gives you .10 euro receipt ticket for each water bottle.
- The top of St. Olev's church has a good view of Tallinn city.
- It is typical for Estonian homes to have an indoor sauna.
