The kids praying together at one of their child focused services.

The sunset surrounding Volcano Fuego.

H.O.M.E. International quickly became my home away from home. Organizing the donation closet here, going on trips to and from school with the children, doing arts and crafts with them, monitoring them while the staff has meetings, helping with set up and take down for lunch, organizing and cleaning the playroom, getting the nannies supplies, cleaning out the van, reading with the kids, assisting on special outings, going to court hearing and interviews with the children, and assisting in the monthly grocery and supply run has kept me very busy. I have learned that flexibility is a must in daily planning here.

I absolutely love being Tia Sharon to these beautiful children! Every time I see them smile it makes me smile! I can see God working in their lives! God has definitely taken me out of my comfort zone from driving on the roads here, hiking in the jungle, to experiencing multiple earthquakes.

We went to visit Antigua, which is the location of ruins of Spanish architecture here in Guatemala. I tried chocolate tea and walked through the cobblestone streets.

Celebrating her birthday!

Catching bugs!

The kids learned how to make their own pizzas!

The children doing their kite project for a fun activity on the windy days.

This precious girl was just adopted!

This little one loves reading time!
