

Greeting in the name of Jesus!

October is almost over, and I can hardly believe I have been in Japan for 6 months. I'm so thankful for this journey and everything I have learned so far. I know the next several months will be challenging and exciting and I look forward to seeing what is in store for me!

October was a great month for the Gifu/Nagoya Church. On October 15th we took a trip to Saitama, our Mother church, and had a joined service with Pastor Matsui and the brethren from both Gifu/Nagoya and Saitama. It was a wonderful time in the Holy Ghost It was the first time both congregations had been together, one for the memories! We left refreshed and my heart is so full!

We had service during Typhoon 21 (moved through Japan October 18-23) and I am so thankful for Nicolas family! They have been an incredible blessing to me. Because of the typhoon the trains were delayed on the way to church and ended up being cancelled. I was concerned before church and the Nicolas' offered to drive me to my apartment so that I could go to church. I am so thankful!

I am so excited for the JUPC Northern Regional Conference coming up during the first week of November. Unfortunately, due to my work schedule I am only able to go to Tokyo for the Sunday – but I am so thankful! I am so blessed to have this opportunity and I am believing for a mighty move of God in Tokyo!

This month was challenging for many reason but I am so thankful that God had a plan and he places things and people in our lives at the perfect time. In the end of September, I was looking on the internet for a book written by Sister Kim Haney and I came across her new book that was published in August, For women who are called by women who have answered. I was so excited! The title of the book and the summary struck me - little did I know that the short book would change my life. I am so incredibly thankful for Pentecostal authors who are anointed and have put for a word of faith and encouragement that reaches all the way around the world.

The Gifu/Nagoya was inspired when we visited Pastor Matsui's church and on Sunday Brother Nicolas shared a deep, powerful message about revival. We are expecting great things to happen in the coming months. So thankful!

God bless,

Emily Peddle
