Konnichiwa (: And Greetings from Miyako. I have great news (: I wish I could say that I had new converts to the church but that's not the case. BUT We have made 6 new contacts in the past month and they seem to be very interested in building friendship with us here. 2 of these new contacts have been spending a lot of time with us, and I'm sure in the future will be attending our life groups on Wednesday and our preaching point soon after.

We did an extended fast for the month of June, and well God has been doing some renovations in our lives. A fresh vision and a new level of expectation is the byproduct. I'm so thankful for the field God has chosen me to labor in. We will see a harvest. I believe right now one of the key ingredients for a full harvest is remaining faithful to the work and keeping a positive attitude. The work is growing and the miracles are just around the corner. God bless (:

Soon this report will reflect new converts but till then thank you for the prayers coming our way. Have a blessed week.
