NEXT STEPS 2017

AIM Apprenticeship

For the second portion of Next Steps we were separated into smaller groups and sent out to various locations within the U.K. and Ireland. I was placed with the Northern Ireland / Glasgow group. The first week of our AIM apprenticeship began in Glasgow with cleaning

HBC, rearranging the kids church rooms to make room for the growing attendance, and helping Pastor and Sister Kelley prepare to move. From here we traveled to Belfast, Northern Ireland to assist the Cooney's, missionary family to this region. We were blessed to participate in their home bible studies, Sunday services, Sunday school, and prayer walks. We had the opportunity to tour around and experience the culture and history of Northern Ireland. Upon returning to Glasgow, our group helped with some of the preparations for the coming General Conference along with prayer walks and other daily tasks. During this time we gained a better understanding of the day-to-day work, ministry, and obstacles faced in foreign missions fields. I leave this time spent abroad changed, with new burdens, new understanding, new spiritual goals, and a renewed sense of urgency for the lost and hurting souls through a broader perspective.
