

AIM Report - Namibia

June 2017

General Address:

I arrived May 31st, anxious to experience the wonderful country of Namibia. And now, one month later, I find myself falling more in love with Namibia as each day passes. During my first month, I found this country and its people to be beautiful and unique. It's beautiful in the sense that there's beauty everywhere you look; every tree, every bird, every face, every soul. It's also unique because it is a new place for me. Therefore, it provides me with new and different challenges to face and problems to solve. I stand with open arms of anticipation and excitement for what God is going to do during the next 11 months of my stay here in Namibia.

Associate in Missions:
Amy Riggle
Namibia
amyriggle13@gmail.com

Amy's AIM Blog:
TOTALLY DEPENDENT
totallydependent.weebly.com

1

June Report:

During my first month in Namibia, I have been able to do and see many amazing things:

- I got settled into a nice flat not far from where the missionaries are staying. Picture 1.
- I was able to visit the orphanage a few times to play with the kids and tutor them on their homework. I hope to have a deeper involvement with this orphanage in the future. Picture 2.

2

- The Ikerd family and I drove to Subregional Conference for leadership training. The Lord moved in each of the sessions and services. I feel I gained a lot of knowledge just by being there and soaking in everything that was put out. On the way back from conference, we stopped and stayed in Botswana. There, I was invited to preach to the youth after service Sunday morning. It was an awesome experience that I am very grateful for! Picture 3.

3

- The Ikerds asked me to take over the “younger youth” group (ages 12-19) as well as the “older youth” group (ages 20-30, unmarried) at Windhoek United Pentecostal Church. Since then, we have seen great attendance during each group’s services on Saturdays. Picture 4.

- I got the privilege of witnessing the Baptism of a teenage boy in Jesus’ name at Windhoek United Pentecostal Church during a Sunday service. Picture 5.

4

5