Upcoming events

The Pentecostals of Dublin Youth are hosting an event on June 30th, we called this service Acts 29 because the young people of today are the next chapter and our future church. It will be full of fun, plenty of laughs, wonderful time of worship, preaching and a powerful time in the Lord. We have sent out many invitations and are hoping for a wonderful turn out. Our young people have been in prayer and fasting for this event and we are believing God that He will move mightily in our service. We will be streaming the service live through Pastor Terry McFarlands facebook page and the Pentecostals of Dublins facebook page as well. If you would like to tune in, the pre-service fun begins at 6:30pm and the main service will start at 7pm Dublin time. If you are interested in viewing, the service will begin at 12:30pm CDT.

Hungry for more

The Pentecostals of Dublin are on the move, we are making progress each service and reaching new levels in Him. God is definitely moving in our midsts, and we are seeing lives restored, people healed, baptizing new saints in Jesus name and seeing them filled with the wonderful gift of the Holy Ghost. Our young people are the driving force behind the church, forcing the church to move and progress. These young people have grasped a hold of their own personal relationship through prayer and reading the word and they are growing in Him and have become the catalyst for revival in this church. Just last Sunday, there was a mighty move of God and the young people began to pour into the alter. Mason, a 6 year old young boy began to weep before the Lord as tears streamed down his face, he began speaking in other tongues as God filled him with the Holy Ghost. The hearts of the young people are ready and hungry for more. Continue to pray for the people of Ireland that God will soften their hearts to His perfect will and that the strongholds in our area will be broken.

Help us pray

The Pentecostals of Dublin are desperate for a church building of our own. We rent a conference room once a week at a hotel in Dublin and it can be very inconvenient due to the fact that other venues get priority first. We may be forced to be in a small room one week or in a room with a divider where a loud disco party is going on next door the following week. We even deal with numerous psychic conventions that are held often in this hotel causing a spiritual battle throughout our services. Help us pray for direction and provision that God will lead us to the right location and make a way for us to obtain it. He already knows what we have need of before we ask and it already belongs to Him so help us pray for His leading in this matter.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

We love and appreciate all the prayers of support for our family and for Ireland. We are on the edge of revival in this country. Please continue to hold the Pentecostals of Dublin up in prayer as well as the Davis and McFarland family. Mark 16:15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Without the help of our supporters in America, none of this would be possible. We give honor and thanks for everything you do to support missions. We love you all and pray God richly blesses your churches and homes.
