

Fiji, July 2018

Sara Gabrielsen-Aimer

BULA!

(pronounced as boolah) literally means "life" and is most commonly used greeting, meaning "hello!" in Fiji

Homeschooling with with Justus Wickett

Photo with Bible School students & teachers after morning devotions

Baptism in Jesus precious name at First International UPC

Baby Dedication and altar service
Nasinu UPC

Vanua Levu

Youth Day
Samabuta

Greetings from Fiji!

Viti Levu

This past month has gone faster than I could've imagined. I am so grateful for the opportunity to be here with my Fiji church family. Thank you all for every prayer!

July kept me busy with helping the Wickett's homeschool their eldest son, Justus, projects for Acts II college and getting to know new friends. I've been blessed to attend services at several local churches. In one of the services four babies were dedicated and one woman was filled with the Holy Spirit for the first time, with many others being renewed in the Spirit. In another service the youth led and ministered to their church centered around the command in Joshua 1:2 to "Arise and GO!".

I was also blessed to be present as another local church baptized the husband of one of their saints, in Jesus name, after years of opposition from his family. God is so good! He is the same, yesterday, today and forever. He is the same in Fiji, the U.S. and around the world!

Mother & Daughter
Tea

No, really (!) This is the airport... I was NOT arrested! Haha

4th of July fellowship with the McIntyre's & Wickett's

