

Good morning from New Caledonia!

I've continued teaching English to the Bible students and they have been progressing really well.

I have a couple church members who have been helping me with Sunday school lessons. One of them is good with young people, which will give us the possibility to separate classes into age groups. We are hoping to get a youth group started.

Thank you for your prayers!

God bless!

Cherish Kennedy

AIM2go New Caledonia

