General Conference

General Conference for the UPC of Great Britain and Ireland took place in Llandudno, Wales. It was a great success as people were filled with the Holy Ghost, ministers were encouraged, and saints were renewed. Alumni did an incredible job during the Bible College service. It was an honor to preach this service and see the students and alumni used during the conference.

Geneva

I was blessed with the opportunity to minister at the Pentecostals of Geneva. It was good to be with my former roommate, Sam Ackah, who is pastoring in Geneva. While there I preached in a Friday service and taught and preached on Sunday. There were 3 filled with the Holy Ghost and two baptized! God is doing great things in Europe!

Reading

It was great to speak at a youth conference sponsored by New Life Fellowship in Reading, England. The conference would be hosted by Sis. Jeanine Lucas who scheduled the conference in this city with the mission of starting a church there. God moved and encouraged young people during the services. The youth also went into the cities and made two contacts who are ready for Bible studies. We are believing that a great church will be established here!
