

Dónde Nada

Leadership Meeting-
Altar Working

Service in the Park- The
Pentecostals of El Prat

Es Imposible

AIM2SPAIN

Weeks 1-2

I arrived back in Barcelona on June 17th and despite being delayed and rerouted flights, lost luggage, and no sleep it felt so great to be back to my second home. The journey was both chaotic and hilarious. I am thankful for all of the craziness. It allowed me to meet and make a wonderful new friend, Ms. Sharon, who lives near one of our Church campuses in Dallas.

I met my fellow AIMer and roommate, Kailey, who is also from Texas and we connected immediately. We were able to start school right away, which helped me jump back into things without feeling too much jet lag. Thankfully, I received my luggage at the end of the week!

My first Church service back was amazing. My Spanish has somehow improved because I am able to understand everyone much better than before (Gloria a Dios!)

Weeks 3-4

Some of our team were able to attend a Feria, an outreach event with food tables from several nations and entertainment. We had the opportunity to pray for many hurting and broken people and the food was amazing.

The Nation of Spain also hosted its National Ladies Conference and our ladies were able to attend. Many notable miracles took place, including the deaf ear of a woman being opened.

Our team was also able to celebrate the 4th of July together along with the Beebee Family (AMers to Andorra). We ate tons of America food and had a great time of fellowship in our patriotic colors. So thankful the Harrods were willing to open their home to all of us.

God is doing amazing things in the nation of Spain. The best is yet to come. So thankful for all of the support and prayers that have helped me get here! Please continue to keep the nation of Spain in your prayers for God to continue opening doors.

“A picture is worth a thousand words”

1st- Lincoln and Alaina Harrod, MKs to Barcelona.

2nd- Yaijara, Alexandra, (our roommates) Kailey, and myself touring our city.

3rd- Some of of Spain missions family on the 4th of July.

