June 18, I arrived in Osaka, Japan. Bro. Hosmer took me and fellow AIMER Collin Angell on a short trip in mainland Japan before heading to Okinawa!

日本へようこそ!

Osaka

Visited Osaka-jo (castle), and saw the city from the top of Abeno Harukas, the tallest building in Japan.

Kyoto

Walked through (and up!) the Fushimi Inari shrines, amazed by the traditional-style architecture. This is the nation's ancient capital, but there are no churches here (yet).

Iida

Had a Bible study with a new convert, and we prayed over the city. Iida lies near the Japanese Alps, which Bro. Hosmer took us to see. Though cloudy, it was lovely!

Please pray for those in Iida, and that a strong work would be established here!

沖縄

Uruma-shi, Okinawa

Got settled in at Sound of Praise, and I've had the chance to help with Sunday school and the youth group! So far we've gone through and organized materials and curriculum, and are making plans for the summer.

We've had daily devotions and a time to study Japanese. Services and Friday night prayer meeting/discipleship classes have been powerful, and I'm thankful to meet and work with some incredible people! I'm excited for what God has in store these next couple of months, and I look forward to the new adventures ahead!
