

MICHAEL J. SARNA

July 21, 2019

To My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings from Santa Ana, Costa Rica! I am happy to report to you that God is continuing to move in Costa Rica in a powerful way. Last Sunday in Jaco, we rejoiced as one received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. This weekend, on Saturday, in El Hoyon we had a powerful meeting, as the gifts of the spirit were present and ministering among the congregation. Prayer continued past the end of altar call and into the parking lot outside of the church building. For me, it was a special blessing to be with the Church there, as it is a new work founded just over a year and a half ago. On Sunday, in Cocoir, we watched the Holy Ghost minister to the congregation in a beautiful way, as several were visibly touched by the renewing and washing of the Holy Ghost.

On Wednesday, July 17th we started a training series in Pavas entitled "Ministering to the Body." This series is focusing on teaching and preparing the Church body to minister to one another, as well as guests, in the altar. It is our hope that this will prepare the Church for the revival we are sure is arriving in Costa Rica. We believe that this training will be well received and will be taught throughout the churches in Costa Rica. With joy I can report that God's presence was felt in a powerful way during the first part of the series. The entire church body responded to the call of God to be used in this ministry.

I thank you for your continued prayers, as they are crucial to the work we are doing here. We are believing that the best is truly yet to come!

Sincerely,

Brother Michael J. Sarna
