

Our first park service! It was a rainy day, but when we arrived God allowed the rain to stop just long enough for the teaching.

A portion of the old Jewish ghetto. It was a very sobering experience to stand next to it.

Hello Supporters!

We have finally made it to Warsaw! The other team members and I arrived in this beautiful city June 29 and immediately fell in love with it. We have spent the last month learning the ins and outs of the city as well as the history of Poland. I have found myself completely fascinated with the events that happened here during WWII. It is truly an amazing and tragic history.

Since we have been here, we have frequented several different coffee shops and local parks, finding people to make connections with. So far, we have made about ten contacts and we are very excited to see God work in their lives! Also, we have held services in the park, fed the homeless, and spent much time studying the language. Polish is definitely a challenge!

I absolutely adore this city. The people here are very dear to me already and it has only been a month! God has big plans for this city and I am grateful to have been called here for such a time as this. I appreciate every one of my supporters, whether you support in prayer or financially. None of this would be possible without you allowing God to use you to make a way for us to be here. Thank you so much!

I can't wait to see what August has in store for this country! There is so much potential here!

Bóg jest dobry!

God is good!

Sara

Representing my two loves at the Freedom Festival held by the American Embassy on July 6th.

Beautiful Old Town Warsaw. This was reconstructed as an almost exact replica after it was completely destroyed during the German occupation in WWII.

Talking with a precious lady from Ukraine who was having a very rough day.

This is my friend Magda! She is doing her absolute best to teach this poor Texan the Polish language. Pray for her, saints.

This email was sent to pmorgan@upci.org
why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

AIM2GO · 905 Lee St · Goldthwaite, TX 76844-2302 · USA

